The Executive Committee approved the following by e-mail ballot on July 15, 2011:

A  New Courses

INF 2170H – Information Architecture
INF 2332H – Information Behaviour

B  Conversion of Existing Special Topics Courses

INF 2141H: Children’s Cultural Texts and Artifacts
INF 2143H Issues in Children’s and Young Adults’ Services

C  Course Renamings

INF 2188 – Advanced Arrangement and Description: Archival Representational Practices (formerly Archival Representation)
INF 2309 - Special Topics in Information Studies: “Reading and Readers in North America and around the World” (formerly Reading: Theories, Practices, and International Perspectives)

Material supporting these decisions is available on the Faculty Council website for review.